Complete the following tasks Weekly Report: Must include the following: definition, usage, and example of the following commands: mkdir: is used for creating a single directory or multiple directories. example `mkdir + the name of directory`. touch : is used for creating files. example `touch list`. rm : is used to removes files. example `rm list`. rmdir: is used to remove empty directories. example `rmdir Downloads/games`. mv : move and renames directories. example `mv + source + destination`. cp :the cp copies files/directories from a source to a destination `cp + files to copy + destination` ln : is used to create link between files. for example `ln -s [option] file link`. man : used to display user manuel of any commands. example `man printf`.

Brace expansion and how to use it